Makerere Bulls beat Police 31-26 in the National handball league to go level with Uganda Prisons' junior side Spears on top of the men's table standings on eight points each.

Isma Kisalita and Dan Aboku scored a game high nine goals each to maintain their stand on top of the scorer chart with 38 and 34 goals respectively at Mandela National Stadium Nambole on Saturday.

Makerere coach Hannington Musoke vowed after the feat that his side is focused on winning the trophy this year.

"The boys came determined for a win. So they maintained on our game plan and we got results. We have played five games with four wins and a loss which is a good performance," Musoke said.

Meanwhile, their women side lost 26-11 to Police with Leticia Awor managing four goals for the university side.

In the other men's games played, former champions Prisons smashed Kyengeza 67-23, the highest score this season to stay on top of the table log unbeaten with eight points from four matches.
